

		Latrell Marable		BSCS 701
Dat	te:	December 5, 2024	Score:
Directions: Answer the given questions below.
MY PREPARATION FOR MY DREAM JOB A Survey
1.	Wh	nat is your dream job? Web Developer
2.	Enu	umerate the skills you learned so far that are relevant to your	dream job) .
ľve a	acqı	uired key technical skills relevant to web development and l	blockcha	in technology. I h	nave a strong foun	dati	on in HTML and CSS for structuring and styling websites, a	ınd I'm pı	roficient in JavaS	script for creat	ting	dynamic web features. On the backend, I've worked with N	lode.js to	build scalable a	pplications.
3.	Are	you financially capable before you land your first job?	I YES	NO
	lf Y	ES, state and explain your source of personal income.
No, I	l am	not financially capable at the moment. My only source of in	ncome co	omes from the sa	vings I accu	ımul	ated while working as a student. Since I am still in the proc	ess of se	ecuring my first jo	b, I am relyir	ng o	on these savings to support myself during this transition.
4.	Ho	w do you manage your stress when things get out of hand?
Whe	n th	ings get overwhelming, I first take a breather and calm mys	self down	from the situation	on. This gives	s me	e the mental space I need to regain clarity. After taking that	moment	, I reassess the s	situation with a fre	sh p	perspective, breaking tasks down into smaller, more manag	eable pie	eces.
5.	Cai	n you balance your personal life with your school and/or work	life?	☐ YES	NO
	lf Y	ES, share some tips on how you achieve your work-life baland	ce.
Yes,	I ar	m able to balance my personal life with school and/or work.	I do this	by setting clear p	oriorities and orga	niziı	ng my time effectively. I break tasks down into smaller, mar	nageable	steps and alloca	ite time for both	my	work and personal activities. I also communicate with famil	ly and frie	ends to ensure th	ney know.
Lifeld	ong	our own words, what is lifelong learning? learning is being committed in the ongoing process of acqu			s throughout our lives. It is about staying curious, finding new challenges, and adapting to changes.					